

The Network of ULB's Museums participates in European Academic Heritage Day
18.11.2011

Every year, at November 18, UNIVERSEUM (European Academic Heritage Network) invites universities to commemorate "European Academic Heritage Day". Across Europe, special exhibitions, conferences and other events celebrate the diversity and richness of university museums, collections, libraries and archives.

On this occasion, the Network of ULB's Museums (Université libre de Bruxelles – ULB) offers a free guided tour of the old university campus at the Leopold Park to 25 visitors.

Programme

09.45 : Meeting point at the entrance of the Leopold Park, rue du Maelbeek side (Jourdan place – lower part or next to the pond « côté « bas » ou « étang »)

10.00 : Façade of the House of the Dental School

10.30 : Warocqué Institute

11.30 : Remains of the old physiology auditorium (Lycée Jacquain)

12.00 : Jacquain Institute (ancient Solvay Institute and School of Economics ULB)

13.00 : Lunch at own expense (there are many restaurants at the Jourdan place and surroundings)

14.00 : Janlet Building (Natural Sciences Institute)

14.30 : Solvay Library (ancient Sociology Institute)

16.00 : End.

On reservation only (25 pers. max.) – Contact person: Aurélie Garcia : +32 (0)2 650 42 42 – gecult@ulb.ac.be